TREASURER G. M. Wood has received from Secretary N. J. Andrews highly illuminated posters and hangers advertising the Greene county fair, which begins at Carrollton on Oct. 16th and closes on the 19th. The fairs of Greene county have always been successful, the premiums having been paid in full every year, and the stockholders receiving a dividend. Mr. Wood attended the first fair of the society, which was held in the court house in Carrollton many years ago.
A PERFECT fit guaranteed to everybody by Fleury, the French Outier, corner of old square. 164dwt
THE Peoria fair will doubtless be the largest and most attractive fair of the season. The entries are already being made. One hundred stalls have now been engaged, and as there are only about one thousand stalls on the grounds, the exhibitors should secure the choice by writing early. The attractions already promised exceed those at any other fair ever before held in the state. Bicycle races in the glare of electric light, chariot races, the fastest horses, and the finest show of blooded animals help make up the attractions. Nearly $3,000 have been spent in improving the track and buildings. This is the fair which our readers should not fail to take in.
WILLIAMS & LONGOOR, Belvidere, Ill., say: "We sell no medicine which gives better satisfaction than Brown's Iron Bitters."
DEAL with Niedermeyer's handy store on the mound, and you will get reliable groceries.
ANOTHER invoice of Wilson Bros' Pennington shirts just received at John Irwin's White Front P. O. Block.
V. H. PARKS has three Kellogg phonograph carriages for one or two horses. Very desirable for small families. Also two jump-seat top buggies, which will be sold at a sacrifice to close out. A rare chance to buy cheap. He has a good assortment of buggies to sell at very near cost. His stock must be closed out by Sept. 15, 1881. At the scales south of tabernacle. 64d
"STUCK IT BACK."—"That's what I did," said a young man the other day as he was displaying to the admiring gaze of a friend his new suit just purchased at our store.

Mr. N. Hagerman, of the New York Store, is having a magnificent residence erected on one of his lots on West Main street, near the corner of Monroe. The modern structure will contain 18 rooms, besides numerous pantries and closets, and will cost several thousand dollars.
Ald. T. T. Roberts has decided to add a $2,000 addition to his residence property on West Main street. Mr. Evans will do the work and J. Baldwin will have the job.
The roof of Joe Michl's new store building is being put on.
Mr. J. M. Reaney is making extensive improvements on his dwelling house on Wood street, near the Third ward school house. Mr. R. will have a commodious and beautiful home.
The foundations of the W. H. Grindol brick marble shop are about completed. In a few days the roof of the J. W. Harworth block will be finished, and then the inside work will be commenced. The block will be a decided ornament to the city.
Words of Warning.
Mr. E. Francis desires to notify hunters and the public in general that hunting on his pasture enclosure, this side the river, at the left of the road leading to the county bridge, must be stopped, and that all not heeding these warning words will be arrested and prosecuted to the fullest extent of the law. Lately hunters have been in the habit of hunting in and near this pasture, and two of Mr. Francis' cows have been hit by stray bullets. He is getting tired of the continued trespass and will have it stopped.
Death of James Coop's Father.
The information of the death of A. W. Coop, aged 83 years, father of James Coop, the well-known salesman at F. L. Hays & Co's dry goods store, was received in Decatur this morning. The deceased was a pioneer resident of Belleville, St. Clair county, Ill., where he died. The funeral occurred yesterday, and the son, who went to Belleville some days ago, was in attendance.
Located in Ohio.
Mr. M. Goldberg, lately connected with the Alexander knitting factory as manager and part owner, writes us from Bellefontaine, Ohio, to send him the DAILY REPUBLICAN. Mr. Goldberg will soon engage in the millinery and furnishing goods business at Bellefontaine in September. He has a large experience in this line of business. The REPUBLICAN wishes him success.
The Defendant Discharged.
In Justice Lowry's court, this forenoon, the case of the People vs. Dan. W. Jones, arrested for selling liquor to a drunkard, was called for trial. Mr. Jones was present, ready for trial, but there were no prosecuting witnesses in attendance, and he was discharged. Mr. Jones avers that it was a blackmailing scheme all the way through, and that he was ready to prove that such was the case.

We are pleased to state that Bene's black and blue bruises are disappearing, and that his sore hand is getting better, and that soon he will be in shape to tackle his bicycle once again.
The social and entertainment given at the tabernacle by the W. C. T. U. was attended by about 200 people. The literary programme was a fine one. Miss Minnie Baldwin gave two fine selections, one in costume, and acquitted herself excellently. She possesses pronounced elocutionary talent. It is always a pleasure to hear her. The little Misses Pease recited the Lord's Prayer and one of the Psalms splendidly. The receipts were fair.
What They All Say.
The following letter, which explains itself, was received in Decatur last evening:
MATTOON, ILL., Aug. 16, 1881.
A. O. BARKER:—Dear Sir, enclosed find an express order for amount of your bill. The cakes (for a wedding) were very satisfactory, and received much praise.
With thanks, yours truly,
JOSEPHINE R. MORRIS.

Church Affairs.
There was a good attendance of members and friends at the social and festival given at Stapp's Chapel last evening. Splendid refreshments were served and flowers sold readily. The receipts were quite satisfactory.
The Baptist excursionists got home safely last evening from their picnic jaunt in the Antioch grove, east of Decatur. The participants say they had a grand good time and a pleasant ride on the cars. A beautiful picnic dinner was served.
The ladies of the Decatur Turner Society gave about 500 people a splendid supper at the park last evening between 6 and 8 o'clock. There was dancing, for which the Pleiades orchestra furnished the inspiration.

No Robbery.
A sensational story in published about a $1,400 to $5,000 express robbery, alleged to have taken place at the Union depot, recently. Official representatives of the Pacific company say there is no truth in the story, and that no robbery has occurred.
Bouquets will be given to the children of the Band of Hope at the tabernacle to-morrow. All young ladies who are interested in temperance work are invited to come, and to bring flowers if they can.
SECRETARY.
In Justice McGorray's court last evening Robert Wilkinson, the merchant policeman, had an examination on a charge of being an inmate of Ruby Walker's house of ill-fame, a room in the old Revere house block. The arrest was made by Officer Brewer, who found the pair in a locked room together, and the officer took the precaution to have witnesses of the situation. Evidence was affected through a partition. Wilkinson claimed that he was in the room on legitimate business, to ascertain the reputation of the woman for "truth and veracity." The Justice reserved his decision until 5 o'clock this evening. Ruby Walker was fined $25 and costs by Justice Lowry and was committed to the county jail.

The city marshal of Wepella has been ordered to look after trains that run through the place too fast; also after boys who persist in playing around the cars. If Marshal Mason should receive an order to watch all trains running at a greater speed than six miles an hour through Decatur, he would be in object of general pity. He would be kept busy making arrests that he wouldn't have anything else to do during his term of service. And then if he had to watch to keep the boys from jumping on moving trains he would doubtless resign the first day of his punishment, for the job would be a stunner. It is a notorious fact that every day the railroad companies violate the city ordinance by allowing their trains to go hitting through the city, and as to boys jumping on trains that, too, is an every-day and hourly occurrence.

Thomas Harrison.
Mr. Star Cool favors us with a copy of the Lancaster (Ohio) Gazette, of the 15th, which contains a glowing account of the camp meeting in progress at that place. The Gazette says that the leading workers outside of the conference are Rev. Thomas Harrison and Mr. and Mrs. Lowery. There are 438 lots laid out in the enclosure and all are occupied by tents and cottages. There were 2,000 permanent residents on the grounds last Sunday, and 12,000 visitors. Five separate meetings were in progress on the grounds that day. Rev. Harrison was quite successful in his revival work, inducing hundreds to come to the altar. His engagement at Lancaster closed Wednesday night, when he reluctantly departed.

A Wretch.
In the Springfield Monitor of August 15th, a copy of which is furnished the REPUBLICAN by Mr. G. A. Kimber, appears an article detailing a nameless wretch made upon little Rosa Block, aged 6 years, daughter of Col. D. J. Block, proprietor of the Palace hotel at that place. The assault was made by a wretch named Will C. McDonald, of Virginia, Ill., a guest of the hotel, who on Wednesday took Rosa out riding in a buggy. The fellow was unsuccessful in his attempt, and Thursday night he was promptly arrested and lodged in the county jail. The act caused quite a sensation at Springfield.

Under Arrest.
This forenoon Marshal Mason arrested A. A. Bishop on two city warrants, one charging him with knowingly renting a house to a bawd, and the other for being an inmate of a house of ill-fame. The examinations are booked for Monday next.

PERSONAL MENTION
W. I. Lowry is on his way home from the far west.
Miss Clara Ferry, of Warrensburg, is in the city visiting Miss Amelia Adderly.
Mrs. J. N. Wilkinson is at Buda visiting relatives.
Mrs. A. T. Hill and son are home from Minnesota; also Will Wood.
Mrs. Will O. Taylor arrived home last evening from Brookfield, Mo., after an absence of several weeks.
Capt. Baker says many of the Decatur Rifles will go into camp at Springfield next Thursday.

Rev. DeForest and Joe Dinger are home from a successful chicken hunt. They had a grand time.
Ed. Jones, the new clerk at the St. Nicholas, is on duty and is making many friends.
Dr. James F. Moore, who has located at Unionville, Iowa, in the practice of his profession, is in the city.
L. J. Thompson, of the board of trade, is absent on business. I. O. Egan is going it alone.
John Swartz and Maurice Adderly left yesterday for a week's chicken hunt in Missouri county.
Mrs. John M. Sterrett and daughter and Mrs. Walker, of Taylorville, are in the city visiting B. I. Sterrett and family.
Bright Duffee, of Champaign, and Harry Duffee, of this city, are among the parties interested in the proposed street railway at Lincoln, Nebraska.

Dr. A. S. Waltz informs us that George W. is not his brother, but his nephew, though some people coming to the dental office have often enquired: "Where's the young man; where's your son?"
Rev. and Mrs. N. S. Haynes arrived in the city this morning from the east. They have been attending the National Christian S. S. convention at Grand Park, Ind., where Rev. Haynes will remain until next week.
E. A. Trunkman and W. B. Cowles, advance advertising agents for the Bazaar and Lumbermen's Association, are at the St. Nicholas hotel this morning. They are taking a look through the city to-day in company with Manager Haines. The shows will be here on Sept. 14th.

James Reed Dills, is now located at Danville, where he is localizing and soliciting for the Sunday Herald, of which paper Richard H. Reed is chief pilot. Mr. Dills is well known in the community as a poet of some ability. Localizing on a paper will knock all the poetry out of him in short order.
Manager Haines is again under the collar. He has been trying hard for over a month to get a good attraction with which to open the opera house before fall week, but at every point he has been checkmated. He is too early in the season, as none of the shows are yet on the road. He is making an effort to get a good show before September but he finds it uphill work.

A Country Gentleman of the Olden School.
The Associate of Lincoln, Douglas, Baker, and the Other Great Ones of the Past.
Major John T. Stuart, of Springfield, a prominent lawyer, arrived in the city on Tuesday and spent the night at the residence of Judge David Davis. Major Stuart is the oldest practicing lawyer in the state. He is aged 77, and is the head of the celebrated firm of Stuart, Edwards & Brown. This is his first visit to Bloomington since 1864, when he was in the city as a candidate for congress, Bloomington and Springfield then being in the same district. In conversation with some of his friends yesterday he said he was present at the first court held in the then newly organized McLean county, which court was held in 1831, being in the spring of the same year in which the first town lots were sold in Bloomington, the court being held in the Dr. Stipp log house on Grove street—next door to the Hanna residence—which is still standing, being the oldest house in the city. This house was then owned by James Allen. The court on that occasion was held by Judge Lockwood, of Jacksonville, with whom Major Stuart rode on horseback from Springfield to Bloomington, coming here as an attorney to practice in the court. After that time he frequently attended court in Bloomington in company with Lincoln, Douglas, McDougal, Baker, and others. Abraham Lincoln studied law with Major Stuart, and between the two thereafter there existed the closest friendship. Major Stuart was appointed one of the executors of the Lincoln estate, Judge Davis being the other, and doubtless business in connection with this trust brought the venerable lawyer to Bloomington. There is not a lawyer practicing at the McLean county bar, or at the bar of Sangamon county, who was in practice at the time Major Stuart entered into public life. At the early age of 25 years he was a member of the Illinois legislature, and as early as 1838 was elected to congress. In conversation he stated that he was on the site of the present Bloomington as early as 1823, at which time but two houses were visible upon all that tract of prairie. From the earliest movement in public Major Stuart has always been held in the highest esteem, being honored and respected for his great ability and his pure and unspotted life. He is a gentleman of the most elegant and courtly manners, and despite his advanced age is a man of commanding appearance. He is a fine specimen of the perfect gentleman of the older school. Major Stuart spent the hours of his visit here very pleasantly among old friends, and bade good-bye to the city yesterday afternoon.—Bloomington Pantagraph 10th.

The Friends Greeted.
H. B. Duffee and his wealthy cousin, Bright Duffee, of Champaign, have been at Lincoln, Neb., for some weeks past, engaged in the enterprise of securing the franchise and right to build a street car line in that western city of 15,000 inhabitants. On Wednesday last (the 15th) the citizens of the town voted on the question, and the proposition carried by a majority of 1800 votes. Several other parties who are too modest to give their names for publication, are interested in this project. It is presumed, however, that the company will go ahead and construct the proposed line, and get wealthy as rapidly as possible. Decatur is coming to the front in the street car line. Already she has furnished capital for a new line in Decatur, for another now in successful operation at Lafayette, and now we have got the bulge in Lincoln.
A Birthday Surprise.
Yesterday Mr. E. Wade, living three miles northwest of Decatur, was made the pleased victim of a surprise visitation from 40 of his friends in honor of his birthday anniversary. A fine time was had and a bountiful country dinner was discussed. Mr. Wade received the following gifts: Laundered shirt, Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Wade, of Warrensburg; silver butter dish by Samuel Wade, of Clinton; beautiful chrome, Mr. and Mrs. George Benson; beautiful testament, Miss Matthe Wade; silver teaspoons, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hubberfield; canister, Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Blue; china cup and saucer, Lizzie Wade, of Warrensburg; beautiful silk handkerchief, Mr. and Mrs. Hammet; handkerchiefs, Misses Lucy and Lizzie Bentison; breadplate, Mr. and Mrs. Henry White; beautiful enlarged picture of E. Wade's mother by his wife.
The only way for you to realize our immense bargains in clothing is to call and see for yourself. Our goods are all new, stylish, well made, durable, reliable, and cheap. Come. CHAS. CHAPMAN.
